

CHILDREN & FAMILIES ABUSE PREVENTION PROGRAMS

 Website: Bravehearts Offers personal safety education programs for children in early years through to high school, as well as online child protection training courses.	Phone 1800 272 831
 Website: Body Safety Australia Offers to all communities body safety education that celebrates children of all socio-economic statuses, religion, abilities, sexualities, genders, cultures and/or family structure. Programs are for early childhood through to secondary school.	Phone 03 9471 2247
 Website: CAPS Child Abuse Prevention Service is dedicated to the prevention of all forms of child maltreatment. Delivers community education programs designed to keep children safe, supported and loved.	Phone 02 7232 0422
 Website: NAPCAN National Association for Prevention of Child abuse and Neglect, focusing on the prevention of child abuse and neglect before it starts. Offers a range of training programs and workshops.	Phone 02 8073 3300

 Website: Roar Australia Programs are based on Protective Behaviours Themes. Kids Roar: focus on ‘Personal Safety 4 Kids’; personal safety and child abuse prevention programs that are age and stage appropriate and suitable for children.	Phone 03 9769 3774
 Website: Safe 4 Kids Aboriginal communities: Safe 4 Kids Aboriginal Communities Safe4Kids child Abuse Prevention Education Program for Aboriginal communities is a non-threatening sustainable, innovative, culturally sensitive, relevant early intervention abuse prevention program. Its primary focus is to teach Aboriginal children strategies to help keep them safe through a whole community approach.	Phone 08 9497 7685